Welcoming Nanuet Public Library's New Director, Jessica Bowen

Photograph by Betsy Franco Feeney Photography

The Nanuet Public Library Board of Trustees is pleased to announce Jessica Bowen as its new director. Jessica has extensive public library experience and served most recently as director of the Dennis P. McHugh Piermont Public Library in the Village of Piermont since 2008. She holds a Master of Library and Information Science from Pratt Institute in Manhattan.

Greet the Director Thursday, Feb. 28 4:30 - 6:30 PM

Join us as we introduce and welcome Jessica Bowen to the Nanuet community. Light refreshments will be served.

In Memoriam

Bobbie Russell

Clerk to the Nanuet Public Library
Board of Trustees, 2001-2018

Our dear friend and colleague, Bobbie Russell, passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, January 5, 2019. Bobbie will be remembered for her cheerful nature, her dedication to the library and her love of family and friends. We will miss and remember her always.

Library Week Amnesty, April 7 - 13

So you forgot to return a book for ... months. Or maybe you lost a DVD then found it again after it was way too late to return it. It's okay. Things happen. Bring them back and all is forgiven!

During National Library Week, April 7-13, fines will be forgiven for all Nanuet items. Bring your Nanuet materials back and we'll waive your overdue fees, no questions asked. All returned items must be in good condition. Fines related to lost or damaged materials and fines accrued on previously returned materials are not eligible for amnesty.
