Nanuet Public Library
Nintendo Classic Console Borrowing Policy and Agreement

Nanuet Public Library offers 7-day loans of a Nintendo Classic console to Nanuet Library card holders only. Participation in this program is dependent on agreement to the following rules and regulations.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Only Nanuet Library Cards in good standing will qualify for borrowing the Nintendo console. Before checking out, LOST items on a card must be resolved by returning the item, paying for the item in full, or providing a new and exact copy replacement, as determined by Circulation Policy. Fines on a card must not exceed $10.00.
2. Before checking out the Nintendo console, any damage and all parts present will be noted / verified on the Checklist Form by Circulation or Reference Staff.
3. The Library Card holder must be present to check out the console. Another family member may not present another person's library card to check out the console, unless special arrangements have been made (for medical or other accessibility reasons).
4. The Nintendo console will be Express / Non-renewable.

RESPONSIBILITY AND LIABILITY

1. Borrower agrees to keep food, beverage, or other liquids away from the Nintendo console.
2. Borrowers agrees that harsh chemicals will not be used for cleaning any part of the console. Library Staff will clean / disinfect the console with approved and safe methods between users.
3. Borrower takes full financial responsibility for a List / Damaged Nintendo console. Borrowers may be billed damages relating to rough usage or disfiguring of the console in other amounts as determined by Library Staff.
4. Borrower understands that the Nintendo console carries with it a $5 fine for every day overdue.
5. Borrower agrees that the Nintendo console will not be loaned / shared with other individuals during the borrowing period.
6. Borrower agrees that the Nintendo console will not be returned in the Book Drop to avoid damaging the product. Borrower must return the console at a time when the Library is open and directly to a Reference Staff member for review. Returning the Nintendo console in the Book Drop will result in an automatic $25 fine.

I hereby agree that I have reviewed and understand the terms of this agreement, and agree to abide by them.
